

RECERTIFICATION PROCEDURES

All NCSNs are required to renew their certification in order to demonstrate that they have kept current with new practices, methodologies, equipment, medications, and terminology in the specialty of school nursing. School Nurse certification is granted for a period of five (5) years at which time the certificant must either retake and pass the Certification Examination for School Nurses or meet current continuing education and recertification requirements.

Certified school nurses are notified one (1) year in advance of the expiration of their certification. Candidates for recertification must meet current eligibility requirements and submit appropriate documentation to demonstrate that criteria are met. These include:

- A copy of the applicant's current RN license.
- Current employment in school health or related services, as defined in the Handbook for Candidates
- Payment of required fees.

It is the responsibility of the candidate to maintain active/current address and contact information with NBCSN. Deadlines missed due to forwarded and lost mail are the responsibility of the candidate and may incur late fees or forfeited recertification status.

The President may grant extensions for application and documentation for recertification, provided the certificant has submitted a request in writing within 90 days past the anniversary deadline of the initial certificate. Requests received within the 90 days past the anniversary deadline will incur a late fee of $100, in addition to all applicable recertification fees ($225). No request for extension will be granted past the 90 day anniversary date. Certification will be revoked 90 days past the anniversary date and candidates must reapply for certification and meet all current eligibility requirements for the examination.

Recertification Application

To apply for recertification through continuing education, 75 hours of continuing education or approved credits related to school nursing practice must be documented. These activities must be related to the practice of school nursing, sponsored by an approved national or state accrediting agency, and must have been completed during the five years prior to the expiration date on the candidate's certification. The required fee must accompany the recertification application.

Continuing education (in school nursing) is defined as programs beyond basic nursing preparation that are designed to promote and enrich knowledge, improve skills, and develop attitudes for the enhancement of (school) nursing practice.

Continuing nursing education activities are assessed, planned, implemented, and evaluated in accordance with adult learning principles and professional education standards and ethics. The educational design process includes procedures for protecting educational content from bias, providing learners appropriate information and documentation related to their participation, and maintaining records in a secure and confidential manner. (ANCC)

To count towards recertification renewal, a program must have been approved by one of the credentialing agencies (accredited providers) approved by the NBCSN. They must have met national or state predetermined criteria to approve programs and provide continuing education (CE). The Board recognizes the following credentialing agencies:

- Nursing specialty organizations listed below, or those accredited by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), as
 - American Academy of Nurse Practitioners
 - American Association of Critical Care Nurses

- State boards of nursing
- State departments of health and education whose programs have met the criteria for continuing education through accredited providers
- National accrediting agencies for licensed professional counselors and social workers

These organizations, in turn, approve other continuing education providers, as hospitals, state nursing associations, or online and commercial providers. All approved or accredited nursing programs are issued a number (provider number) which is part of the certificate of completion or attendance and must be included on the documents submitted for NCSN recertification.
